This movie will make you laugh, cry, and believe in the power of true love. Want to know more? Keep reading! The story of Laaga Chunari Mein Daag is about a widow named Pushpa who lives with her four young children in a small town in Rajasthan. After an acute turn of events, Pushpa is left with no means to take care of her children and she sets out for the big city with them all on an arduous journey. Here they are exposed to society's harsh reality. They suffer humiliation at every step but through sheer resilience they are able to overcome it all, sometimes with humor too. But their troubles do not end there. After they are brutally exploited in the big city, their lives take a turn for the worse when two of her children are kidnapped. This is when Pushpa decides to fight the system and take on the culprits, along with their henchmen. The law fails them but finally justice prevails. Thus this emotional roller coaster takes you on an emotional journey that will leave an imprint that will stay with you forever! Saif Ali Khan plays the role of Inspector Goyal, who sticks by Pushpa's side during her struggle. The movie stars Kriti Sanon who plays the role of Tanya, an orphan, who was adopted by Pushpa. The film is directed by Rajiv Saraf. It has been produced by Aditya Chopra under his banner Yash Raj Films and is coproduced by Punit Malhotra. The music of the film is composed by Pritam. Mithoon has composed the soundtrack which has five songs including a remix song sung by Arijit Singh. The first look of the movie was released on 1 March 2013.
